One Year ... Many Changes

"In my own name, and in the name of the Diocesan Church of Harrisburg, I express our profound sorrow and apologize to the survivors of child sex abuse, the Catholic faithful and the general public for the abuses that took place and for those Church officials who failed to protect children. We have and continue to take steps forward to support survivors and ensure these abuses never occur again."

– Most Reverend Ronald W. Gainer
Bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg

Acknowledging Our Past

- ⇒ Released and published all allegations made against Priests, Clergy or Seminarians.
- ⇒ Removal of all bishop's names from positions of honor within the Diocese for failure to do enough to prevent childhood sexual abuse.
- ⇒ Removal of the names of Priests, Deacons and Seminarians named in the Diocese report and/or the Grand Jury Report from positions of honor within the Diocese.
- ⇒ Conducted nine Listening Sessions, allowing the faithful and survivors to express their concerns, frustrations and feelings.
- ⇒ Created a Survivor Compensation Program, which was managed by a private mediation firm (Commonwealth Mediation and Conciliation, Inc.).
- ⇒ Compensation Program was open for survivors of childhood sexual abuse committed by Harrisburg Clergy, Deacons and Seminarians, as well as Order Priests.
- ⇒ 112 survivors participated in the Program.
- ⇒ 106 survivors accepted offers.
- ⇒ $12.1 million total payments to Survivors in the Program.
- ⇒ Ensured that all survivors of childhood sexual abuse receive counseling services, at low or no cost to them and from a counselor of their choosing, regardless of their participation in the Survivor Compensation Program; accepting or declining a compensation offer in no way impacted a survivor's access to counseling.
- ⇒ Created an email address (AskBishopGainer@hbgdiocese.org) to offer more access for parishioners and the public to communicate directly with Bishop Gainer.

Building a Better Future

- ⇒ Every report of child sexual abuse is reported to Childline and the appropriate District Attorney as has been our Policy since the early 2000s.
- ⇒ Contracted with Janet McNeal, retired Pennsylvania State Police Captain who oversaw Megan's Law, to oversee the Diocese's Safe Environment Program.
- ⇒ Reconstituting the Diocesan Pastoral Council.
- ⇒ Restructuring the Diocesan Review Board.
- ⇒ Revised our Youth Protection Policies.
- ⇒ Maintaining and reforming an intensive screening and education process for those in formation for the priesthood.
- ⇒ Revising the Safe Environment Program lesson plan for our Catholic School and Religious Education students.
- ⇒ Streamlined multiple Diocesan Offices to ensure every parishioners' dollar is spent efficiently and effectively.
- ⇒ Revised Diocesan Financial reporting to increase transparency.
- ⇒ Revised and enhanced communications materials, including The Catholic Witness, and will soon be relaunching a new website.

ST. Ignatius Loyola Church
1095 Church Road
Orrtanna, PA 17353

Dear Friends at St. Ignatius Loyola Church:

Thank you so much for your thoughtful gift in the amount of $500.00 to support SCCAP's Programs.

SCCAP programs fill critical needs that help a family improve their lives. Government funding has decreased significantly over the years. Shelter funding cuts are causing shelter closings all across the country, here in our communities, we really appreciate the community's response which has enabled us to continue serving families.

Your donations make changes like that possible! Whether food for a senior, shelter for a family, gleaned produce for a diabetic, job training for a single mom, emotional support or a micro loan for someone in Circles, your support of SCCAP enables those little things to become large steppingstones toward a successful future!

Thank you so much for helping us do little things that impact families in a big way! We really couldn't do it without you!

With great appreciation,

Megan Shreve
Chief Executive Officer

Thank you so much!

“If one member suffers, all suffer together with it.” (1 Cor 12:26)

Many Catholics have questions regarding the 2018 Grand Jury Report — what steps have we taken to ensure the safety of our children, how are we helping survivors, how are we meeting our financial obligations, and where the Church goes from here. Bishop Gainer has held Listening Sessions to address these questions. A booklet was developed to help: We Pledge: A Report to the Catholic People. It is available on the diocesan website @ www.YouthProtectionHBG.com.
