Second Collection: THE CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

We have returned to three (3) Weekend Masses
5:00 pm Vigil , 8:00 am & 10:30 am
( Mass will continue to be in the Lower Loyola, for now)
For Sanitization purposes we are asking parishioners who attend to help clean their own areas after the 8:00 am Mass.
The process should only take about 15 minutes.
We have been relying on the efforts of just a few parishioners to do this before. Now as circumstances for public Masses has evolved, it should now be a wider parish effort to help in this ministry of sanitization.

"I CAN'T SERVE GOD AND MONEY"

SILICON VALLEY BUSINESSWOMAN ENTERS CONVENT

As a Deloitte executive and founder of a successful internet startup called Jetlore, 36-year-old businesswoman Montse Medina didn't seem like an obvious candidate for the convent. Earlier this year, though, she dropped a bomb via Twitter and LinkedIn: she was giving up everything to become a contemplative Catholic nun.

As she wrote in her epic "break up letter" with the business world, the pursuit of money and prestige had left her empty. She was finally going to pursue a call to religious life that she had felt since she was young. After carefully studying various orders online, and visiting a specific community many times, Montse finally chose the Monastery of Santa Ana in Spain.

Interestingly, her genius for online marketing may not be lost in her new vocation. The nuns support themselves by making homemade pasta, pies, and pastries—then selling them via an online store.

Montse Medina is an online entrepreneur who recently became a nun.

WHY I'M LEAVING: AN EXIT LETTER

"I used all the talents that the infinite goodness of our God had given me, but I used them for my own glory and to accumulate wealth in this world. I was seeking only my own interest. And I was deceiving myself because far from making me happy it only caused me an ever-growing emptiness...."

"The restlessness of my soul has led me to seek the will of God in Catholic communities, in volunteering, I even planned to found an NGO, but I could not find peace in any of these projects. Now, following the call to offer myself to the Lord in contemplative consecrated life, I have found peace of the heart...."

"I have made the most important and at the same time the simplest decision of my life. I have decided, without any regrets, to stop investing in my earthly future and start investing in my future for eternal life."

Read the full letter at aciprensa.com

HOW TO TAKE THE LEAP

For most young women in today's culture, the very idea of religious life seems absurd. And yet... a tiny part of the heart can wonder, 'Could God be calling me?' A book from a sister in New York City has advice on answering that question: Discerning Religious Life, 200pp, available at vianneyvocations.com

Ordained in a Mask

Bridgeport seminarian Brendan Blawie was dismayed when he heard that Bishop Frank Caggiano, quarantined with COVID, wasn't going to be able to ordain him. But with more than a decade of higher education, including Officer's School for the Marines, Brendan knew how to soldier on. Becoming a priest would be the culmination of a long journey from his hometown of Newton, CT to Virginia Tech, Franciscan University, Quantico, and finally, seminary in Rome. After all that, the pandemic was a small hurdle. Thankfully, Bishop James Massa from Brooklyn was able to stand in on the day of ordination. "I am filled with gratitude and joy to have arrived at this point in my life," said Fr. Brendan, "To lay down all that I am, to be configured fully to Christ as His priest."

A RETREAT IN IMAGES

What's it like to be poor on purpose? Is it embarrassing to talk to strangers about Jesus? Do you get angry when the poor are ignored? The Franciscan Friars of the Renewal (CFRs) explore these questions and open a window into their life and work in an amazing new photo book with 200 super-crisp photos and six provocative essays: A Work of God: Images of Renewal, available at vianneyvocations.com

FOR PARENTS

GROW A GARDEN AT HOME

Happiness is doing the will of God! And because you desire your children's happiness, it's vital to help them discover and accept their vocations. Here's a simple "growing guide" to help your family bear fruit:

Prepare the soil: Call a special family meeting about your priorities. Pray, "Lord Jesus, we consecrate our family and our futures to you."

Plant the seed: Say, "I would be proud of you if God called you to be a priest/sister/brother and you said yes."

Water the garden: Infuse faith into your environment. Pray as a family; get involved in youth group; invite priests and sisters to dinner.

Campus Conversion

Brother Ray Morris grew up on the Jersey Shore as a "cultural Catholic" whose family rarely went to Mass. By the time he entered Rutgers University, the Catholic faith was the furthest thing from his mind. To make some extra money, he took an office job answering phones, which just happened to be at the university's Catholic Center. "It was there I met the Brothers and everything changed," he said.

His job opened the door for Ray to give going to Mass another try. "Ten years later, I'm still here!" he jokes, then adds with sincerity, "After I encountered Jesus, the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, and peace—quickly began to appear in my life."

Brother Ray entered the novitiate for the Brotherhood of Hope in 2014 and made his final vows in January 2021. Now it's official: his life's work is reaching out to students not unlike himself.

"I believe that colleges are the key battleground for the hearts and minds of the young in our Church," Brother Ray said. "Our method is to start by fostering real relationships with students. So basically, I walk around campus playing sports and sharing meals with students, building relationships and (hopefully) leading them closer to God. It's a mission that is fun at times and disheartening at others, but always worthwhile. It's a genuine gift to serve God and His Church in this way!"

Brother Ray belongs to the Brotherhood of Hope, a relatively new religious community whose main focus is evangelization on college campuses. They "go deep" with students, working one-on-one and in groups to help young people encounter Jesus, leave sin behind, and develop habits of virtue and daily prayer.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH

APRIL 25

THE CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

In their 2000 pastoral letter Responsibility, Rehabilitation, and Restoration,* the bishops of the United States called the faithful to embrace an approach to criminal justice that takes into account the dignity of crime victims and their families, communities, and offenders. The Catholic Home Missions—funded Diocese of Santa Rosa is answering this call for an approach that upholds justice and healing in its six counties of northwestern California, stretching from Napa in the south along the coastline to the Oregon border. The diocese’s Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries program (www.restorejusticesantarosa.org) works to fulfill the bishops’ vision through a variety of activities that in-well as pastoral ministries for crime victims and their families, justice system personnel, and inmates. The program’s broad range of goals are being implemented, expanded, and refined yearly with financial assistance from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. When you participate in the appeal, you join in the Church’s healing mission of mercy to all.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Right now, over 40% of dioceses in the United States

APRIL Is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every April, Catholic parishes and schools across the United States participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

The Effects of ABUSE

When a child is abused, the effects are grave and can last a lifetime. Some of the most common effects of abuse include:

- Loss of faith and trust in God.
- Post-traumatic stress disorder, psychological distress, and other indirect signs of trauma, such as anxiety, trouble sleeping, chronic stomach pain, and headaches.
- A greater risk of developing behavioral problems, substance abuse, and suicide.

The sense of violation goes deep into a person's psyche and feelings of anger, shame, hurt, and betrayal can build long after the abuse has taken place.

Steps to Prevent ABUSE

Communicate with Your Children

It is extremely important to communicate openly with your children. Let them know that they can talk to you about anything that bothers them. This will help you identify warning signs and grooming behaviors perpetrated by offenders before they escalate to abuse.

Educate Yourself and Your Children on Abuse

Learning how to identify, prevent, and report abuse is key. Parents and guardians should empower their children to protect themselves from harm and to report abuse. Ask your diocesan safe environment coordinator or parish delegate about opportunities for safe environment training.

Identify and Report Warning Signs of Child Abusers

Grooming behaviors are the actions abusers take to project the image that they are kind, generous, caring people, while their intent is to lure a minor into an inappropriate relationship. Offenders can be patient and may groom their victim, his or her family, or community for years.

Some abusers isolate a potential victim by giving him or her undue attention or lavish gifts, while others allow young people to participate in activities which their parents or guardians would not approve, such as watching pornography, drinking alcohol, using drugs, and excessive touching, such as wrestling and tickling. Abusers also often try to isolate their victims from family or friends and encourage their victims to keep secrets from their parents or other caring adults.

Holding Offenders ACCOUNTABLE

To help hold offenders accountable, report all suspected abuse to local public authorities. You can also contact your local diocesan victim assistance coordinator to make a report and seek outreach for the abused. In accordance with diocesan policy, when a single act of sexual abuse is admitted or established, the offender is to be removed permanently from ministry.

“Let it be clear that before these abominations the Church will spare no effort to do all that is necessary to bring to justice whosoever has committed such crimes . . . To those who abuse minors I would say this: convert and hand yourself over to human justice, and prepare for divine justice.” —Pope Francis, Dec. 21, 2018

Ten Tips for Protecting Children and Offering Outreach to Victims/Survivors

1 Sexual abuse is about the victim.

Many people are affected by abuse but the individual most impacted is the victim who has suffered a violation of trust that can affect his or her entire life.

2 The residual effects of having been abused can last a lifetime.

The sense of violation goes deep into a person's psyche and feelings of anger, shame, hurt and betrayal can build long after the abuse has taken place. Those who have been abused can heal, but it often takes time, therapy, and the support of loved ones.

3 No one has the right to have access to children.

No one, no matter who they are, has an automatic right to be around children or young people who are in the care of the Church without proper screening and without following the rules.

4 Common sense is not all that common.

Dioceses, schools, parishes, and especially families, must educate themselves and others on how to protect children.

5 Child sexual abuse can be prevented.

It is critical to build safety barriers around children and young people to keep them from harm—such as protective guardians, codes of conduct, background evaluations, policies and procedures, and safety training programs.

6 Feeling heard leads toward healing.

Relief from hurt and anger often comes when one feels heard, when one's pain and concerns are taken seriously, and a victim/survivor's suffering, pain, and anger are acknowledged.

7 You cannot always predict who will be an abuser.

Experience shows that most abuse is committed by someone who has gained the trust of a victim/survivor and his/ her family.

8 There are behavioral warning signs of child abusers.

Some abusers isolate a potential victim by giving him or her undue attention or lavish gifts, others allow young people to participate in activities which their parents or guardians would not approve, such as watching pornography, drinking alcohol, using drugs, and excessive touching, such as wrestling and tickling.

9 People can be taught to identify grooming behavior.

Grooming behaviors are the actions which abusers take to project the image that they are kind, generous, caring people, while their intent is to lure a minor into an inappropriate relationship. Offenders can be patient and may groom their victim, his or her family, or community for years.

10 Background checks are important.

Background checks in churches, schools and other organizations keep predators away from children both because they scare off some predators and because they uncover past actions which should ban an adult from working or volunteering with children.
